

"Amy [...] has a phenomenal voice. Her huge range and gorgeous tone lift these songs sky high... Amy uses her voice and body to create cathedrals of sound...It's really rather magical. Like nothing heard before. Open, wise, earthy, and fun... Amy Petty is a gem, an unforgettable experience" – SPLR

"Itchycoo Park recreates with skill & spirit the magical music and era that peaked at the Woodstock Music and Arts Festival" – Hippie Music Festival

"Itchycoo Park was able to send a full house home very happy. The variety of music was a big hit with the Linden & Fenton community. I am going to guess the people will be sure to circle the date of your return next summer. I know we will!" – Linden Summer Concerts In The Park

"The fact that Itchycoo Park has multiple talented male and female singers, allowing them to closely approximate vocals as diverse as Janis Joplin, Grace Slick, CSN&Y and Doobie Brothers, really sets them apart from many other tributes" – Wildwood Amphitheater

"Thank You for a moving trip back in time for a glorious celebration of the Woodstock concert. This historic event was captured perfectly by your rousing performances that represent a unique time in this country's history" – Goudy Park

"From the first song you had captured the crowd and connected with everyone in the park. You could easily tell that each of the members of the band loved performing and had a passion for the music of the Woodstock era. You are gifted musicians in every aspect, and we are grateful that you shared those talents with us" – Metro Parks

"You guys gave the residents of Angola a night to remember. The music and vocals were amazing. The audience was dancing and singing to the music. If you have an opportunity to bring "Itchycoo Park" to your community, do it! They really are amazing!" – Dave Ellis

"You guys were absolutely amazing! Insane vocals and talented musicians like I have never seen before. Your bassist and drummer blew me away when you played "Won't Get Fooled Again", John Entwistle and Keith Moon were smiling above" Pete Goodroe
